OBITUARY

ARTHUR JOHN DAVID HADWELL

Since our last issue the grim hand of death has visited the Town of Blaimore on two occasions, taking therefrom two highly respected and beloved personages in the persons of Arthur John David Hadwell and Mrs. Isabella Campbell Gray.

The former passed away at the local hospital on Saturday evening, following an illness extending over a year.

About a year ago, Mr. Hadwell sustained injuries while riding a toboggan near Crow's Nest Lake, necessitating his entering hospital where he spent several months before being able to move around. During the summer his condition seemed to improve gradually, till late in the fall, when he felt so fit that he was able to participate in his admirable role as soloist at social functions. A relapse occurred, however, about Christmas time, and he was again admitted to the hospital for attention. A series of hemorrhages had the effect of weakening his system, and in a very few weeks his condition was such that grave fears for his recovery were entertained. Even to the last, in spite of his sufferings, he retained consciousness and a cheerful and helpful disposition. The end was not expected and he passed to the Great Beyond about 8 o'clock on Saturday evening.

The late Mr. Hadwell, through his pleasant disposition and vocal ability won numerous friends, all of whom join at this time in sympathy with his mother and brother, who survive him. He was born in South Wales thirty-seven years ago, and worked in mines at Newbridge. During the Great War he served at the front with British forces, and came to Canada nine years ago. For about two years he located in Montreal, where he was soloist in St. James Cathedral, broadcasting on many occasions. From Montreal he moved to Vancouver, where he was soloist at Central Wesleyan church, broadcasting over C.N.R.V. Two years later, he moved to Blaimore, where he was engaged as fire boss with the West Canadian Collieries Ltd. That capacity he filled till his incapacitation a year ago.

Surviving are, his mother and brother, Thomas, in Blaimore, and brother in the States, and cousin, Mr. Harry Blake, residing here.

One brother, William, predeceased him several years ago at Bellevue.

Funeral took place from the Blaimore Undertaking Parlors on Tuesday afternoon, in charge of the I.O.O.F. of which order he was a faithful member. The remains were laid to rest in the Bellevue cemetery, following an impressive service conducted in the Bellevue United church by the Rev. J. L. Wright, assisted by Revs. John Wood and J. W. Smith.

Floral offerings were many and beautiful, bespeaking of the esteem in which deceased was held.

ISABELLA CAMPBELL GRAY

On Monday evening, death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Meffan, on Eighth Avenue, taking therefrom the spirit of Isabella Campbell Gray at the ripe age of seventy-three years and four months.

Mrs. Gray had been ill but a couple of months, the cause of death being cancer. She was a native of Glasgow, Scotland, coming to Canada to join her son and daughter several years ago. Through her amiable and kindly disposition, she became well known and beloved by all.

Surviving are, her son, Robert Gray, and daughter, Mrs. George Meffan, residing here; also in the Old Country, two brothers, Daniel and Campbell, with all of whom we extend sympathy.

Funeral took place from the Crow's Nest Undertaking Parlors on Wednesday afternoon, the remains being laid to rest in the Union cemetery, following an impressive service at the United church, conducted by Rev. J. W. Smith, B.D.

Floral expressions of sympathy were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Gray and family, John and Mary; Mr. and Mrs. G. Meffan and Isobel; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gray (Glasgow Scotland); Mr. and Mrs. E. A. "There is no death. 'Tis but the opening of a door—A passing over the threshold into wondrous light—The entering into joy and sense unspeakable—A welcoming by those we loved before—An instant change to nobler, more abundant life—There is no death."

The late Mrs. Gray was a member of Greenhill Temple of Pythian Sisters, and members of that lodge formed part of the funeral cortege.

WILL GIVE LECTURE
AT ORPHEUM THEATRE
ON SUNDAY NIGHT

"In books, in papers, in speeches and wherever vice or crime is spoken of, much is said of the girl and her downfall. When ways and means for salvation are debated they are always for girls or for unfortunate men and women but never yet has there been a general agitation to save the boy and set him on the right road. In his early days the boy naturally mingles with his schoolmate and right here begins his career. Although his natural character is more or less fixed, the 'gang' he mixes with forms his habits, his action, and his ideas of right and wrong when in unrestrained contact with others.

"The Boy Scout movement has been the salvation of many boys. Parents, educators and lawmakers benefit the race and the land by every encouragement of this sort of organization. Boys are trained to obey, to understand the physical needs, union in action, refinement in company, and most important of all, they are taught a sense of authority and a knowledge of responsibility prepared for use without fear should an emergency arise. Boys trained in this manner with few exceptions become broad earners and home builders."

Thus declares Silent Biddle, who will appear in person at the Orpheum Theatre Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock.

Are We Over-Governed?

Even before existing conditions and present difficulties began to force men in public life, the leaders in finance, industry and business, and over-burdened taxpayers in general, to give heed to the cost of operating our governmental businesses, national, provincial, municipal and educational, the question: "Are We Over-Governed?" had sporadically arisen. Many people believed we were, and probably the average man if asked the question would unhesitatingly have answered "Yes," adding, "But what can be done about it?"

In answering "Yes," Mr. Average Canadian would recognize the fact that in this far-flung and sparsely settled Dominion we have ten Parliaments, ten Governments, ten civil services, to administer the national and provincial affairs of ten million people. That, in addition, we have Commissions, Bureaus, Boards, of all kinds; thousands of municipal units, and tens of thousands of boards of school trustees, with a multiplicity of lower, intermediate and higher courts of law. He would be contemplating the enormous annual output of school board and municipal by-laws, Provincial and Federal statutes, rules and regulations beyond computation. "Yes, we are over-governed," he would say, and without actual knowledge of the local government institutions in the Old Country, possibly add: "Look at England, Scotland and Wales with only one Parliament and one Government for forty odd millions of people."

But in asking, in reply, "What can be done about it?" Mr. Average Canadian would have in mind the fixed constitution of Canada (B.N.A. Act), the written constitutions of the Provinces with their stated boundaries, the strict division of legislative and administrative authority between the Dominion and the Provinces. He would be giving thought to racial differences, to language difficulties, to differences of creed, to separate systems of schools, and, perhaps above all else, to those many local jealousies, sectional ambitions, business considerations, in a word, all the selfishness of mere humans individually, and in the aggregate as communities, which would stand in the way of co-operation, co-ordination, amalgamation to bring about a reduction in governmental units. So, with a fatalistic shrug of the shoulders, he exclaims: "What's the use, what can be done about it; it's a mess, but there is no way out, so we might just as well grin and pay the piper."

But now the Canadian people have been paying the piper so long, and the cost of the tunes played have become so excessive, that the grin has faded from their faces, and many are beginning to ask themselves a new question, namely: "Are we as a people so lacking in initiative and determination, so barren of ideas and ability to solve difficult problems, that we have become supine and helpless? Is it not time that we grappled with this thing that is crushing us and cut off some of the tentacles sucking our economic lifeblood away in taxes?"

The outcome of this new orientation in thought about these matters is the suggestion that the unit of representation in various bodies be enlarged, thus reducing the number and size of such bodies. For example, it is suggested that the small rural municipalities, and even the small rural municipalities which exist in the Western Provinces, have outlived their usefulness; that the isolated school district be abolished and schools within a municipality be administered by one board; that several adjacent rural municipalities be merged into one.

To illustrate, and taking the Saskatchewan rural municipality system for this purpose. A rural municipality consists, as a rule, of nine townships, that is an area 18 miles square. This system was adopted, and the Province so divided, when there were no good roads as we know them, only trails; when there were no automobiles and people travelled on horseback or by buckboard; when there were no rural telephones. Under these conditions an area 18 miles from east to west and 18 miles from north to south was considered quite large enough for local municipal purposes. But today four such municipalities could be merged, providing a municipal unit 36 miles by 36 miles, with rural telephones, good roads and the automobile could be administered even more easily than the one-quarter of the same area could be twenty-five years ago. Yet the expenses of three municipal councils would be saved, including three municipal offices, three paid secretary-treasurers, three auditors, and many other costs entailed by duplication in over-head administration and management.

This is but a sample of the suggestions being advanced. It is deserving of consideration and discussion at least. The same idea is applied to Provinces will be dealt with in the next article of this series.

Bank of England Pays

Sends To U.S. Balance Of Credit Advanced Last August

Fulfilling its announcement made on January 25, the Bank of England has repaid the $150,000,000 balance of the credit advanced to it last August by the New York Federal Reserve Bank in association with other federal reserve banks and the Bank of France.

The bank made the payment without drawing upon its gold reserves. The credit originally granted amounted to $250,000,000 and was reduced by $100,000,000 in November, largely by drawing upon gold reserves.

Institute Of Pacific Relations

Invitation Extended To Hold Next Conference In Canada

An invitation will be extended to the Institute of Pacific Relations, which met last year in Shanghai, China, to hold its next biennial conference in Canada. It was decided at a meeting in Toronto of the executive council of the Canadian Institute of International Affairs. The Canadian Institute is the national unit of the Institute of Pacific Relations in the Dominion.

Steps were taken at the meeting to participate in a round-table conference on diplomatic relations with the British Empire, which it is hoped to hold next year, possibly in Canada.

Honored For Railroad Service

The first woman to complete a record of almost half a century of service in Canadian railroading was honored at Montreal when Miss M. A. McLeod, an employee in the controller's office of the Canadian National Railways, received a presentation. Miss McLeod joined the old Grand Trunk Railway in 1886.

A "One-Man" Dog

Animal Covers 1,550 Miles In Arctic For Five Months

One of the most unusual dog stories in the north country was revealed at The Fox, Manitoba, on the arrival of George Harrison, widely known trapper. Harrison, who returned from trapping north of Indian Lake, 1,500 miles north of The Fox, Manitoba, told of his former lead dog, whom he left with a friend there about a year ago.

The dog was growing old and he decided to give it a good home with a friend when he came in with his catch of furs last season. He left the dog in November of 1930.

Late in January the dog was missing from his home. Three months later, with bleeding paws and reduced to a skeleton, he was waiting to greet Harrison when he got up one April morning. The dog covered the hazardous trail back to his old home in some of the worst weather in history.

Harrison will keep the dog with him because he does not believe he would survive another such trip.

Tells Dyspeptics What To Eat

Strict Diets Often Unnecessary

It is a well known fact that some foods have a strong tendency to produce excessive stomach acidity and consequent indigestion. By omitting from the diet those foods that excite the stomach to produce too much acid, the diet to certain tastes unappealing foods, stomach troubles, arising in many instances as they overcome the stomach, are avoided. Foods that are due to excessive acidity of the stomach are: coffee, tea, alcohol, and meat. The stomach is a very sensitive organ, and it is not wise to eat anything that will irritate it. ### A Royal Recipe

Old Fashioned Plum Pudding Of Queen Victoria's Day

Mrs. W. H. Austin, of Toledo, is one woman who can keep a secret. For half a century she has kept secret a royal recipe for old-fashioned plum pudding of Queen Victoria's day. It is to be kept secret and handed down as a legacy to her daughter.

When 17 years old Mrs. Austin was cook's assistant in the Lion Hotel at Nottingham and received the recipe from the former mistress of the kitchen in the castle of the Duke of Rutland on a promise that it never would be given out or sold. In those days the cooks memorized the recipes, which never were written down for fear they would be stolen. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Reparations Claim

132 Men Who Were Prisoners Of War In Germany To Benefit

Reparation claims of Canadians who were German prisoners of war, involving $149,840, have been paid by the Dominion. In amounts varying from $500 to $3,000, the money will be distributed among 132 men who suffered disability through brutality. A commission headed by E. M. McDougall, of Montreal, heard applications for reparations from former prisoners of war in all the large centres from Halifax to Vancouver.

Payment Of Loan Debts

Suggests That Debt To U.S. Be Paid In Manner In Which They Were Contracted

May I suggest that it would be both fair and in the world's general interest if the debts to the United States were repaid by precisely the same machinery as that by which they were contracted?

It has been said that we borrowed in gold and ought to pay in gold; but this is not quite an accurate statement. To be sure, what we borrowed was valued according to the dollar currency. But gold was not sent across the Atlantic ocean; what was sent was munitions of war. The process, if I remember right, was that the American Government gave to the British Government a credit to be used in purchasing the needed munitions in America, which was done. Now might not the British Government give to the Government of the United States a credit for the amount of debt due under the agreed terms of repayment, the credit to be used in purchasing commodities in Great Britain? The method of repayment would in this way exactly correspond to the method of contracting the debt.

Further, might not a similar machinery be used for all payments of reparations and war debts? Each debtor country might give to its creditor a credit to be used in purchasing within the debtor country whatever commodities the creditor desired to acquire. In this way the disastrous complication of war debts and tariffs would be avoided. — Lord Hugh Cecil in the London Times.

Looking For Gold Again

Unemployed In Western States Hoping For Lucky Strike

In California and other western states hundreds of unemployed have turned out to seek the gold. Old mines are being reopened and men are following the mountain streams as they did in '49. It is said that those who know how to hunt the yellow specks are making from $150 to $3 a day.

The pickings are not rich, but there is the adventure, a chance to make a living, the ever-present hope of a lucky strike and the great personal satisfaction of finding useful work.

Needs Constant Attention

But Doctor Has Kept Chicken Heart Alive Twenty Years

The piece of chicken heart which Dr. Carroll has kept alive for twenty years—longer than any chicken lives—is not quite a perpetual-motion machine. Like the lamp of the vestal virgins, it needs constant attention. It must be kept at the proper temperature. It must have the right kind of air. It must be fed with embryonic proteins. It must be washed to remove wastes comparable with a venerated religious relic. Here is a word, it is a tenderly guarded living flame in the Rockefeller temple of science.

Even now that bit of heart is history. In the next century, if infection, starvation, physical injury and poison are ward off, it may become as sacred in a scientific sense as the precious relic. It is a perpetual reminder of the toughness of the primal cell from which all life evolved and of the price that man must pay for his spinal cord, brain and intelligence. On the one hand, nevertheless growth and immortality; on the other hand, sensitiveness to the beauty of life and love but also death.

That seems to be the great lesson taught by Dr. Carroll's piece of tissue. We may never know much more about life than that. For living matter cannot be analyzed as such without killing it.

Speedy Tramcar Service

Philadelphia Citizens Expect To Travel Hundred Miles An Hour

The citizens of Philadelphia anticipate shortly travelling on an electric tramline at 100 miles an hour. The bullet-like tramcars have been put into regular service on a thirteen miles long suburban line in this American city. These tramcars cost $40,000 each. They are so like an aeroplane in design that the driver sits in a real cockpit, furnished with an upholstered swivel chair. While the cars are being "run in," they travel comparatively slowly—the average speed being only seventy miles an hour. The service will, however, be speeded up.

Canadian Writers To The Fore

New Step In Direction Of Canadian Literary Independence

Canada is attaining literary independence, Donald G. French, president of the Canadian Authors' Association, told the Canadian Literature Guild at Toronto.

Mr. French referred to "Pinch of Fortune," by Mazo de la Roche, as the "most distinctive piece of craftsmanship of the year" and to the vivid presentation of Canadian life by Dyke Acland in "Sundown." These demonstrated new self-reliance and confidence in Canada's ability to settle her own problems.

A vast new step in the direction of Canadian literary independence, Mr. French emphasized, was in the realm of history. Hitherto Canada had been dependent on foreign writers for studies of medieval and modern history, but the publication of "Modern Europe and the World," by Professor F. Stenley, of the University of Toronto, marked an important stride forward.

Mrs. Florence Randal Livesey, poetess and journalist, declared Canada need not become despondent about its art, in reviewing current Canadian poetry. She predicted Wilson MacDonald's "Flag of Beauty" would live as has the poetry of Wordsworth. She spoke of the year's wealth of good poetry as evidenced in the "Canadian Chorus A.B.C.," by H. K. Gordon and Thoreau MacDonald; "Dread in Nanaimo," by Audrey Alexander Brown, of Vancouver; Rev. Robert Norwood's "Isaiah"; True Davidson's "Music of the Modern Day"; Ethelyn Wetherall's "Lyrics and Sonnets," and the new note sounded by Annie Dalton, of Victoria, in her Arctic poems.

PARLIAMENT IS OPENED WITH DUE CEREMONY

Ottawa, Ont.—The opening of Parliament lacked nothing in color and brilliancy. From the purely picturesque point of view it was exceedingly colorful. A large attendance of ladies, some of whom waited for several hours to gain admittance to the senate and galleries, died in evening gowns of variegated hues, were there. Military and naval officers, members of the supreme court, in scarlet and ermine, representatives of the church and of the diplomatic corps, contributed to the picture.

The opening presented some new and interesting angles. At the left of the throne, upon which his excellency sat to read the speech, Lady Bessborough, a graceful figure, occupied the chair once owned by the Princess Louise. Behind her, in all the glory of a gold-laced uniform, Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, chosen Thursday morning, Feb. 4, government leader in the senate, stood. Mr. Meighen has participated in the opening ceremony before this, but then he stood at the right of the throne, where Premier R. B. Bennett was stationed Thursday.

The speech from the throne, read in French and English by his excellency, sounded a note of optimism. While making reference to the general depression, it declared Canada's position to be "fundamentally sound." It confirmed the date of the economic conference as July 18. It announced that negotiations are under way with the United States for construction of the St. Lawrence waterway, and it forecast the presentation of a report at this session by the commission on transportation.

From the glitter and gold of the senate, the members of the House of Commons referred to their own chamber. Here another unique event occurred. A Labor member, sponsored by two other members of the same group, was presented to Mr. Speaker, Humphrey Mitchell, who won the by-election in East Hamilton, was escorted to Mr. Speaker Black by J. S. Woodworth, of North Centre, Winnipeg, and A. A. Heaps, of North Winnipeg. The Labor membership in the Commons now numbers four.

The other new member to be presented, Charles Bourgeois, Conservative, of Three Rivers, was accompanied by Premier R. B. Bennett and Hon. Alfred Durnaleau, Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Ottawa, Ont.—Canada is diminishing its purchases of anthracite coal, an imported fuel. During the last five years imports from United States have dropped 1,000,000 tons and the increase from Great Britain, 350,000 tons, has not been sufficient to offset it. In the calendar year 1931, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Canada bought 2,236,400 tons of anthracite from the United States, 776,300 tons from Great Britain, 50,700 tons from Germany and 4,500 tons from French Indo-China.

The tax will be collectable from all employees in the province on their wages, salary or other source of income, on the indemnity of members of the Legislature, the House of Commons and the Senate, and of judges of the courts whether their salaries are paid out of crown revenue in the right of the Dominion or Province.

Bennett which in one sweep cleared the decks for the session.

Premier Bennett handed over the portfolio of Minister of Finance to Hon. E. N. Rhodes, Hon. Alfred Durnaleau, Minister of Marine, becomes acting Minister of Fisheries on the assumption of administration of Finance Department by Mr. Rhodes. Hon. W. Four new senators were named. With Mr. Meighen, the new members of the Upper Chamber are W. H. Dennis, Halifax, newspaper proprietor; Hon. C. C. ## Alberta Income Tax

Government Expects To Raise Revenue Of $1,500,000 From This Source

Edmonton, Alberta.—A revenue of $1,500,000 is expected to be garnered by the proposed provincial income tax.

Government circles indicated the proposal would be introduced early in the session and that it would in no way interfere with the service tax—a form of income tax—at present in effect in Edmonton and Calgary.

Premier J. E. Brownlee and his financial advisers, it was intimated, were considering making the minimum income for taxation $700 yearly for single persons and $1,500 for married persons, with an exemption of $300 for each dependent in the latter case. Rate of taxation is expected to be from two per cent. upward.

Pleads For Faith In League

People Should Give Support Says Hon. Vincent Massey

Winnipeg, Man.—"The free and uncorrupted assent of both sides is imperative to a permanent peace basis in Manchuria and the Far East," Hon. Vincent Massey, former Canadian minister at Washington, told members of the Canadian club here in an address on "The Manchurian Crisis."

"However ineffective it may have been in this controversy, we must not lose faith in the League of Nations," he pleaded in referring to recent developments at Shanghai. "Our course should be rather to give it the utmost of our intelligent support."

The Manchurian situation he ranked as something more than a conflict between two peoples. It was really a collision between twentieth century international machinery and a nineteenth century viewpoint.

On his western tour Mr. Massey will address meetings at Regina, Moose Jaw, Calgary, Lethbridge and Victoria. On his way back he will speak at Edmonton and Saskatoon.

Santiago Earthquake

Eight Are Killed and 300 Wounded In Disaster

Santiago, Cuba.—A series of earthquakes dealt swift damage in Santiago, leaving a known death toll of eight and a casualty list of 300 wounded.

The agitating series of tremors left hardly a building in the city untouched, and a few were destroyed.

Governor Jose Barcelo of Oriente Province estimated that the earthquake damage to the city of Santiago would exceed $100,000,000.

In the first confusion, as all the 130,000 residents fled to open spaces, newspapers and other eye witnesses estimated the death toll at between 500 to 1,500. All these figures were found to be an exaggeration, however, as dawn and a measure of calm came to the city.

DATE IS SET FOR IMPERIAL ECONOMIC MEET

Ottawa, Ont.—Monday, July 18, is the date for the opening of the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa, it was intimated by highest authority.

Great Britain, the Irish Free State, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland and India will send delegates to the conference in the Canadian capital. For some time the question of the date has been the subject of communication by cable with the various parts of the Empire.

The question of the agenda is now expected to be considered. This matter, likewise, will be dealt with by cable communication with the different countries.

In the past, Imperial Conferences have occupied from four to eight weeks. The coming conference will probably last from four to six weeks. Intra-Imperial preference will be the dominating topic of the conference, and the general expectation is that from the conference will come trade arrangements between the different parts of the Empire carrying out this principle.

CENTURY OLD TRADE POLICY ENDS IN BRITAIN

London, England.—The National Government presented its "trade bill" before the House of Commons, taking the first step in its plan to end Great Britain's century-old policy of free trade, and establish in its place a general ad valorem duty of 10 per cent. on all imports to the United Kingdom, with certain exceptions.

Rt. Hon. Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, made it clear that measures contained in the bill which the government hopes to put through all stages of parliamentary procedure by Easter, and into operation by March 1, would not apply to Canada or to any other of the Dominions, at least until after the Ottawa Imperial Economic Conference, which will be held starting July 18, next.

The enactment of the government's tariff policy by Mr. Chamberlain contained six main points. They were:

1. A general ad valorem duty of 10 per cent. should be levied on all imports to Great Britain, except on such articles as are subject to duty already.

2. A free list should be established which would include wheat in grain, meat, including bacon and fish which may be caught in British waters; raw cotton and wool, tea and coffee.

3. A superstructure of additional duties, above the general tariff should be levied on non-essential articles which might be classed as luxuries and on such articles as can be produced in Great Britain.

4. Duties would be imposed by order of the treasury after consultation with the Board of Trade, but the selection of dutiable articles would be made by an independent advisory committee of a chairman and from two to five members, who would be paid salaries proportionate to their standing and to the judicial attitude which would be expected of them.

5. The duties recommended by the advisory committee would be ad valorem or specific, seasonal or permanent.

6. The committee would also have the power of advising establishment of drawbacks to the tariff schedule.

Mr. Chamberlain made it clear that existing duties such as the present levy of 33½ per cent. on automobiles, known as the McKenna duties, the safeguarding duties and duties imposed under the tariff schedule. ## Sir John Martin-Harvey

Noted Actor Now On Seventh Tour Of Canada With New Play

Sir John Martin-Harvey and his London company will be seen at the leading theatres throughout Canada in "The King's Messenger" his new play. This is Sir John's seventh tour in Canada and he likes Canadian audiences. He finds them very appreciative and full of life and fire. They do not like "little plays," as he expresses modern comedy. He brought to the Dominion the largest repertoire of plays ever toured, having eight productions, including "Hamlet," "Twelfth Night," "Othello," "Burgomaster of Stillemonde," "Via Crucis," "David Garrick" and "Cigarette Maker's Romance."

Sir John has played mostly what are termed costume plays, and that, as he explained, because he was brought up in the tradition. He fell into the path naturally "after being weaned on costume productions." He carried on two of the parts created by Irving, the leads in "The Lion's Mouth" and in a version of Scott's "The Bride of Lammermoor" under the title of "The Last Heir."

For three days, commencing Monday, Feb. 15, Sir John Martin-Harvey and his company will be seen at the Darke Music Hall in Regina, in "The King's Messenger."

MISSING SUBMARINE M-2 HAS BEEN LOCATED OFF PORTLAND BILL

The admiralty has announced that the submarine M-2, missing since it dived January 26, with 61 men aboard, had been located at the bottom of the English Channel, nearly six miles off Portland Bill. The vessel, virtually given up as lost after a desperate search for days failed to show a trace of it, was located by the destroyer "Torrid," with powerful apparatus which detected tell-tale sounds. Above is a photograph of the M-2, the first submarine to carry aircraft, and considered one of the finest diving vessels in the British fleet. The map shows the area where the search has been carried out since the accident.

RADICAL REFORMS

Here are a few of the reforms mentioned on the platform of union candidates for municipal election at Coleman. The abolition of the existing system of taxation; no taxation on incomes of less than $5,000 a year; all above that to revert to the municipality; free heat, light and water for the workers; no penalties for arrears of taxes, no evictions and no sales of property; no interference by the "mounties," and policing of the town to be in the hands of the municipality; money for relief to be levied against industry, the provincial and federal governments; and free lunches for the school children, who are to elect their teachers. And another question asked in connection with this silliest of all ideas is: Why not have the children make their choice of parents?"

SCOTLAND IS VINDICATED

(St. Thomas Times-Journal)

In the light of recent events, "Scotch jokes" are in peril of extinction. Rightly so, because they were never justified.

Especially the jokes on that much maligned super-Scot, the Aberdonian.

A report of the income tax authorities of Great Britain for the year 1931, states that during the first two months of that year 90 per cent of the people of Aberdeen who were liable to income tax had paid their taxes before the end of February, and at the end of the year 99 per cent of the Aberdeen folks had paid. That was the British record. It is probably a world's record. The rest of Scotland was close up to that record.

"The standard of payment," says the report, "was much higher for Scotland than for England and Wales."

If you know any new "Scotch jokes" just forget them.

TO LINK TWO GREAT PARKS

Work on a highway that will link Jasper National Park and Banff National Park in the Canadian Rocky Mountains a distance of nearly two hundred miles, has begun. The country, through which the new highway will pass, is at present comparatively little known, and with the exception of a few game wards, unpopulated. The journey from Lake Louise to Jasper at present is possible by pack train over an old Indian trail. The route of the highway will be one of unparalleled scenic beauty, and offers an alternative mountain route to the many tourists now visiting Banff and Jasper. Both of the latter places are noted for their splendid accommodation for tourists and their variety of attractions. Jasper National Park covers an area of approximately 4,200 square miles and Banff Park 2,585 square miles.

The game last night between the fast Blairmore team and the locals was won by the visitors by a score of 6 to 2. This result was not entirely unexpected by the Macleod team, as Blairmore has for a number of years past established a reputation as one of the best teams in the province, and their appearance here drew a large crowd of hockey fans, estimated at nearly 500.—Macleod Gazette.

BELLEVUE HAPPENINGS

Mrs. H. Jepson and Mrs. E. Litherland were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower for Mrs. Raymond Blake at the home of the former on February the 3rd. Games were enjoyed by the guests the early part of the evening, after which a dainty supper was served. Mrs. Prescott and Mrs. Litherland assisted the bride to open her many gifts.

Bellevue hockey fans claimed the Coleman Canadians are the poorest sports in the Crow League. Certainly the game on the third gave them an insight to what goes on. Joyce was penalized in the second period for slashing, he refused to take the two-minute penalty handed out by the referee. When the referee stuck to his decision, Coleman left the ice.

Mr. May is visiting in town this week.

Mrs. H. Campbell returned home this week from Evansburg, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. Vincent.

Miss Martini, of Blairmore, spent the week end in town the guest of Mrs. A. Goodwin.

Mr. Jean Fournelle, who has been ill for some time, suffered a relapse.

The last of a series of whist drives and dances was held in the I.O.O.F. hall on Friday night, when the grand prizes were awarded to Mrs. McEckern, ladies' first; Mrs. R. Shevelo, second; and Mrs. D. Truitt, consolation. Mr. Leslie Cousins, gent's first; Mr. Cranston, second; and Mr. J. Cousins, consolation. The winners of the evening honors were Miss E. Chairavano, ladies' first; Mrs. Cox, second; Mrs. H. Jepson, gent's first; and Mr. Joe Christie, gent's second. After supper a very large crowd enjoyed dancing to music supplied by Miss Peggy Cole's orchestra.

Bellevue First Aid students took their examinations on Sunday afternoon in the school. Dr. Rose, Hillcrest; Messrs M. Congdon, M. Johnson, L. Evans and T. McKay and Dr. Stewart, of Blairmore, acted as examiners. The class this year was the largest in the history of Bellevue, over ninety students attending. Sixty-nine took the examinations for Junior, first year, voucher, medallion and label.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Hallsworth entertained a number of friends on Saturday evening. Cards were enjoyed by all the early part of the evening, the honors going to Miss Beatrice Radford, ladies' first; Mrs. W. Warn, second; Mr. J. Longworth, gent's first; and Mr. W. Warn, second. After a dainty luncheon, games were enjoyed by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Watts Goodwin entertained the Bellevue Choral Society on Tuesday evening. During the evening Miss H. Emmerson, on behalf of the ladies of the Bellevue United church choir, presented Mr. Albert Christie with a smoking stand for his services as organist. A dainty luncheon was served and games were enjoyed by all.

HILLCREST HAPPENINGS

A very enjoyable social evening was held in the K. of P. hall on Wednesday night, under auspices of the Knights of Pythias. Whist was played during the first part of the evening. After cards, a delicious cold supper was served; then whist prizes were awarded to: ladies' first, Miss Norah Young; consolation, Mrs. P. White; gent's first, Mr. A. Chrysler; consolation, Mr. D. Davies. The mystery box was won by Martin Sam. Dancing continued till two o'clock. A hearty invitation was extended to all who attended to be present at the next social evening, two weeks later.

Mrs. W. Woljula, of Hillcrest, was united in marriage to Frank Lipowski, son of Mrs. and Mr. F. Lipowski, of Crow's Nest, on Saturday last by the Rev. Father Donovan in the local Catholic church. The bride wore an ensemble of white crepe de chene and carried a lovely bouquet of lilies and roses. The bridesmaids were Misses Mary Kutchuk and Caroline Woljula, sister of the bride. John Marusi acted as best man and was assisted by Joseph Blasken. After the ceremony, the bridal couple and guests repaired to the home of the bride, where a wedding dinner was served. The young couple will reside at Crow's Nest.

Mrs. Lawrence is lying seriously ill in the local hospital.

P. Haggerty, chairman of the Hillcrest school board, attended the Alberta Trustees' convention in Calgary last week.

CORBIN HAPPENINGS

At their regular meeting, held on Thursday, February the 4th, in the B. & B. hall, the Rebekahs completed the installation of officers, which was held over from their last January meeting. The officers for the term are: May Elms, N.G.; Sara Dorman, V.G.; Lillian Elms, treasurer; Mary Cartledge, financial secretary; Ruth Elliot, recording secretary. After lodge, seven tables were filled and bridge was the pleasurable pastime for the remainder of the evening. At about 11:30, a dainty supper was served, after which prizes were distributed in the following order: ladies' first to Mrs. T. Collins, booty to Mrs. W. Almond; gent's first to Darwin Coote, booty to T. Mansell. Mr. and Mrs. L. Tustian were visitors to Corby, Alberta, on Tuesday, to attend the funeral of Mr. William McWilliams, who was Mrs. Tustian's father.

With continuous snowfall during the first week in February, and still coming down on Monday night, there is approximately three to four feet of snow on the level. On Saturday the last man to attempt bringing a car through on the main highway from McGillivray to Corbin completed the trip in eight hours, after hours of shovelling. On the return trip out, the snow had drifted so much that it was an impossibility to find where the road had been cleared. The Corbin hockey team, scheduled to play at Michel early in the week, was forced to turn back to Corbin, and the game was not played.

Under auspices of the Corbin Community Club, a concert by the Coleman Glee Club is to be put on in the B. & B. hall on Friday of this week. There is to be a cast of over thirty artists, and Corbinites are looking forward to this event with pleasure. Last year, at about this time, we were favored with a play by this same company of players.

Mr. Davis, of Nelson, the Canadian Industries' Limited representative, was in town on Monday.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

On Tuesday evening a meeting of the ratepayers of the village of Cowley was held, when Mr. F. A. Tustian, whose term of office had expired, was re-elected as member of the town council. A satisfactory financial statement was read and among other items of interest, the town water supply was brought up for discussion, when it was decided to do all possible, probably going to the North Fork river as a source of supply.

An epidemic of colds is prevalent in the district and several of the school children have developed cases of tonsillitis, resulting in some of them being under the care of a doctor. The village school children are making their own valentines for their party this year and are giving the bits of money usually spent in purchasing valentines at the stores, to charity causes.

Owing to severe weather conditions, the dance which was put on in the Tustian hall on Friday night by the Pincher Creek orchestra was rather poorly attended.

A whist drive was held in the Masonic hall on Wednesday night when the prizes were won by Mrs. M. A. Murphy, ladies' first; consolation, Mrs. C. J. Bundy; gent's first, Mr. Black; consolation, C. J. Bundy. Mr. G. Swart and Mrs. H. C. Morrison were joint hostesses for the evening with Mr. Archie Swart acting as master of ceremonies.

REPORT DECLARES ALBERTA CANTEN FUNDS DISAPPEAR

CALGARY, Alta., Feb. 8.—Of the sum of $190,124.68 allocated to Alberta as the province's share of the canten funds, derived from profits of canteens operated during the Great War, $75,706 has disappeared, according to information obtained by the Canadian Legion, Alberta Provincial Command, and which has been communicated to all branches of the Legion in Alberta.

The financial statement obtained by the Legion executive shows that the sum of $115,450 was invested in securities and allotted as follows: Canadian Legion, Hanna Branch, on a first mortgage $30.00; Alberta Government Savings Certificates $3,000; 4,000 shares second issue of Canadian General Investment Trust $100,000; 360 shares first issue of Canadian General Investment Trust $9,450.

The council met and decided that it would be in the best interests of the ex-service men to get the money refunded without undue publicity and as a result, on December 21, a sub-committee interviewed Premier J. E. Brownlee, requesting that the government place the fund on a sound basis. While not admitting responsibility upon behalf of the government, the premier promised to place the matter before his cabinet, and asked for a memo covering the suggestions. On Monday morning it was reported that no reply had yet been received from the premier as to the decision of the cabinet.

In the letter to the branches, the Legion provincial secretary asserts that it was suggested that the whole of the securities be taken over by the government until their value approached the price paid for them, and that, in the meantime, the government advance from time to time as required money to properly carry out the functions of the board.

It is pointed out by the Legion that the Canteen Funds Act provides that the lieutenant-governor of any province may make such regulations as may be deemed necessary for the guidance and direction of the provincial board of trustees, and that in the case of Alberta the lieutenant-governor-in-council may appoint a board of trustees consisting of three members.

The contention of the Legion of officials is that the lieutenant-governor was given powers by the act to make regulations for the safeguarding of the funds in question, and that though the provincial government some time ago passed the Trustees Act to protect funds of an ordinary nature placed in the hands of trustees, no such provision was made for the canteen funds.—Ex.

Will You Invest $2.00 in Prosperity?

Good times, that is, times of normally prosperous conditions, are here, waiting for us to put them to work. Industrial and financial leaders tell us so. Bankers tell us also that savings were never as great. Last year savings accounts throughout Canada increased by millions of dollars. There's where the "good times" conditions are—laid up in Savings Banks accounts, with a lot of it should be paid on accounts, and the balance of that increase spent in normal buying at prevailing low prices would have us well on the way to normal good conditions.

Here's How Your $2.00 Works -

You decide to invest $2.00 in prosperity—The best way is to buy something that you have been putting off buying, or to pay it on an account—and if you owe an account, preferably our account, here's what happens—That $2.00 is paid out in wages, or we pay an account; the one who receives it from us buys something he needs or pays an account, until finally you receive your $2.00 back, either in articles sold, if you are in business, or in wages as your place of employment receives orders that your $2.00 has helped create.

The Enterprise has subscriptions in arrears—$2.00 accounts. Each one paid means $2.00 more going into circulation through our employees.

If you are in arrears, make your investment in prosperity with us.

Saskatchewan Motor Licenses

Minister of Highways Explains Reasons Why Increase Was Necessary This Year

Decision of the Saskatchewan Government to increase motor license fees by $5 per license, has been subject of some criticism, and some protests have been received by the Department concerned, according to the Hon. A. C. Stewart, K.C., Minister of Highways.

Discussing the situation, Hon. Mr. Stewart stated suggestions had been made that further increase of the gasoline tax might be used as an added source of revenue and that the motor license fee might be revised downward. "At all," this matter had been carefully considered, said Mr. Stewart, and the motor license fee increase ultimately decided upon for revenue purposes. Elaborating his statement, the Minister said with practically one quarter of the population of the province not only incapacitated from contributing to the revenue but receiving the help necessary to sustain them from the Government, the urgent need for increased revenue is obvious.

In taking this action the Government is merely placing the license fee back where it was prior to January 1st, 1930. At that time a regulation reducing the motor license fee by five dollars was adopted. It has been found however that during the two years since then the number of motor licenses has decreased. In 1929 when the higher fee prevailed there were 108,630 licenses issued during 1929. In 1930 there were 108,501 private car licenses issued, and in 1931 the figures had fallen away to 91,276 or 16,885 less than in 1930. On the other hand the gasoline tax had been increased from three to five cents per gallon. This has not resulted in increased revenue proportionate to the increase in the tax. Directly the tax was increased, the exemption claims increased and many claims for exemptions have been obtained without the possibility of any system being devised for its prevention. "This experience has been similar to that of other provinces and states where the gasoline tax has been increased. When the tax was increased there was also an increase in the bootlegging of gasoline private car licenses issued, and from Alberta a number of a cheaper type of motor fuel like naphtha and distillate.

In the portion of Saskatchewan contiguous to the Alberta boundary, the revenues from the gasoline tax have been greatly reduced. Legislation will be introduced to deal with this bootlegging system, but conditions in this respect are difficult, and it is apparent that an increase in the gasoline tax instead of increasing the revenue in accordance with the increase would lead to further tax evasion, wrongful claims for exemptions, and increase possibilities and profits of bootlegging.

In this connection there has been trouble with some of the oil companies failing to pay to the Government the full amount of gasoline tax collections. Previous to this year the oil companies were paid a commission of two and a half per cent. on their collections. In view of the fact that the tax was raised from three to five cents per gallon and no extra work entailed on collections, the commission was reduced from two and a half per cent. to two per cent. In spite of this fact some of the oil companies have not complied with this regulation, but have deducted two and a half per cent. from the collections remitted to the Government. If this condition continues it may be necessary to pass legislation taxing these companies by direct taxation to the extent of this commission, and to make such legislation retroactive. It may also be necessary to consider a direct tax on all gasoline imported into the Province or refined here, instead of the present method of gasoline tax collections, and thus obviate all possibility of defrauding the Government.

Last year a good deal of leniency was shown with regard to the collection of motor license fees in the drought area, but complaints have been received from farmers who paid their licenses, that neighbors were running their cars without licenses. This year, a strict observance of the Motor License Act will be enforced, and cars running without their cars either by day or night without licenses, will be subject to prosecution and, if the fines are not paid, the consequences will be serious. It is obviously impossible to operate the motor license system if discrimination is shown. A reasonable opportunity will be given to owners to pay their licenses, and the law will then be strictly enforced. The Farmer Government of Alberta, which followed the Saskatchewan reduction of licenses in 1931, is the same year increasing their licenses to the same extent as in this province.

Owing to the roads being blocked in the northern portion of the province, few licenses are being taken out in that area as compared with last year. Last Monday, however, the Motor License Branch at Regina was busier than at any previous time in its history. Renewal of operators' licenses should be made when the motor license is purchased, and the old license should be sent in on the application for a new one.

FEBRUARY 14
JESUS AND THE MAN BORN BLIND

Golden Text: "I am the light of the world; he that followeth Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life."—John 8:12.
Lesson: John 9:1-41.
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 42:1-7.

Explanations and Comments

The Question Concerning the Connection Between Blindness and Sin, verses 1-5.—The Jews held that calamities were the result of sin. Recall how insistently Job's friends tried to make him acknowledge some sin as the cause of all of his troubles. One day the disciples came upon a man who had been blind from birth, sitting where beggars were wont to sit at the gate of the temple, and they said to Jesus, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?" The disciples seemingly were voicing here the popular theory in regard to reincarnation, for a man born blind could have sinned only in a previous existence if his blindness were a punishment for sin. The pre-existence of the soul was the ancient Greek idea, and it is the dream of the modern Hindu mystic.

Sin causes suffering, but the disciples' logic of suffering through sin was quickly defied by Jesus. He threw the responsibility upon the man. He asked, "How could he be born blind?" The disciples seemed to be asking the question, "How could his blindness show forth the works of God?" It gave Jesus the opportunity of showing God's power by restoring his sight.

The Blind Man's Sight Restored, verses 6-13.—Jesus spelt on the ground and made clay and with it anointed the eyes of the blind man. Doubtless he was in order to let the man feel his ministering touch, to awaken expectancy, to arouse the man's faith through the use of some popularly supposed efficacious, and to test his obedience.

The Pharisees' Effect Upon the Jews, verses 13-14.—The opening of his eyes naturally so changed the beggar's aspect that those who knew him wondered whether it could be actually he or whether it were some one like him. They questioned him and he told them the miracle was wrought on the Sabbath and broke the ritual law, some of the Pharisees asked the man what he thought of Jesus and he replied, "His word is a prophet." Then they claimed to doubt that he had been born blind, and parents were urged to come forward and testify.

The Cross-Questioning of the Pharisees, verses 13-14.—Because the miracle was wrought on the Sabbath and broke the ritual law, some of the Pharisees asked the man what he thought of Jesus and he replied, "His word is a prophet." Then they claimed to doubt that he had been born blind, and parents were urged to come forward and testify. They threatened to excommunicate any man who confessed Jesus to be the Christ, so they said that Jesus knew this was their son who had been born blind and now could see, but as to how he had received his sight he, who was of age, could tell them. Again they questioned the man. "Confer with me, then, that Jesus is a sinner," they adjured him. "Whether He sins against your creeds I know not; one thing I do know, that whereas as I was blind now I see," he stoutly maintained.

The Pharisees attempted to cross-question the man again, but his patience was exhausted, and he sarcastically asked them to bear witness to hear his story over again—would they become Jesus' disciples? "We are Moses' disciples," they answered. "We know that God spake unto Moses; and we know whence this man is," they observed with scornful derision, here as a religious thing that "you know not whence He is!" retorted the man. "If this were not from God, He could do nothing."

"Dost thou teach us?" they angrily exclaimed. "We, the godly, to be taught by such a reprobate as you!" And then they excommunicated him. Jesus Finds the Outcast and Restores Him, verses 35-38.—"At once Jesus looked for the man and on finding him endeavored to draw out his faith by asking him if he believed on the Son of God. The man did not understand the title, but when Jesus claimed it as His own, the man exclaimed, "Lord I believe," and worshipped Him—he had received not only seeing eyes but inner spiritual vision.

The True Significance of the Event, verses 39-41.—The comment of Jesus was that He brought spiritual enlightenment to those who, like this man, realized their need of him, and he increased the blindness of those who, like the Pharisees, believed not in Him nor in their need of a Messiah.

Manitoba May Be Policed By Mounties

Province Starts Negotiating For Taking Over Patrol Work

Negotiations for merging of Manitoba's provincial police force with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police have been started says Premier John Bracken, who discussed the matter with Dominion Government authorities while in Ottawa.

It is estimated in government circles at Winnipeg that the province would save $140,000 a year in the cost of law enforcement by having the R.C.M.P. take over the duties of the provincial force.

A despatch from Ottawa says the change to the R.C.M.P. force for Manitoba policing has been expected for some time. Indications are not lacking that further developments in due course will bring British Columbia also into this reorganization.

It is known that sentiment in the three maritime provinces is strong for the adoption of this scheme there and that, indeed, one of those provinces has asked that its provincial police be trained by the Royal Mounted. Unofficial comment here is that the Royal Mounted will be gradually developed until its duties comprise the policing of the whole Dominion, exclusive of urban municipalities; and that the headquarters here will eventually become a sort of Canadian "Scotland Yard."

THE HOUSE OF DREAMS-COME-TRUE

MARGARET FIEDLER

The Splendid Folly... The Hermit Of The Forest... Hodder & Stoughton, Ltd., London.

CHAPTER XIII

"Will You Walk Into My Parlor?"

Jean, sculling leisurely down the river which ran between Staple and Willow Ferry, looked around her with a little thrill of enjoyment—the sheer, physical thrill of youth unconsciously in the trees, with the upward thrust of young green, with all the exquisite recreation of Nature in the spring of the year.

April had been, as it too commonly is in this northern clime of ours, the merest travesty of spring, a bleak, cold month of penetrating wind and sleet, but now May had stolen upon the world almost unawares, opening with tender, insistent fingers the sticky brown buds fast curled against the nipping winds; and misting all the woods with a shimmer of translucent green.

Overhead arched a sky of veiled, opalescent blue, and Jean, staring up at it with dreamy eyes, was reminded of the "great city" of the Book of Revelation whose "third foundation" was of chalcedony. This soft English sky must be the third foundation, she decided whimsically.

But the occupation of sky-gazing did not combine well with that of steering a straight course down a stream whose width hardly entitled it to its local designation of "the river," and a few minutes later the boat's nose cannoned abruptly against the bank.

As, however, to tie up somewhere under the trees which edged the water had been Jean's original intention, this did not trouble her overmuch, and discovering a gnarled limbs of Peterson who had lived there long ago. Such of the old pieces of furniture and china as Peterson had not considered worth transferring to Beirfels at his father's death had been bought by the next owners of the place, and had been taken away by them when, they, in their turn, disposed of the property. Only a great square stone remained, sunk into one of the walls and bearing the Peterson coat of arms and the family motto: "Omnia debet Deo."

Sir Adrian Latimer had translated the words to Jean, with a cynical gleam in his heavy-lidded eyes and accompanying the translation by a caustic reference to her father. The drug had not so far dulled his intellect. On the contrary, it seemed to have had the opposite effect of endowing him with an almost uncanny insight into people's minds, so that he could pick them on a sensitive spot with unerring accuracy and a diabolical enjoyment of the process.

Jean's sympathy for his wife was boundless. A great affection had sprung up between the two girls, and bit by bit Claire had drawn aside the veil of reticence, letting the other see into the arid, bitter places of her life.

Jean could understand, now, of what Claire had been thinking on the occasion of their first meeting, when she had spoken of the influence of the people who inhabit a house. The whole atmosphere of Charnwood seemed permeated with the influence of Adrian Latimer—a grey, sinister, unwholesome influence, like the miasma which rises from some poisonous swamp.

The hell upon earth which he contrived to make of life for his young wife had been a revelation to Jean, accustomed as she had been to the exquisite love and tenderness with which her father had surrounded Jacqueline.

Sir Adrian's chief pleasure in life seemed to be to thwart and humiliate his wife in every possible way, and once, in an access of indignation over some small refinement of cruelty of which he had been guilty, Jean had declared her intention of giving him her frank opinion of his behaviour. She had never forgotten the look of bitter amusement with which Claire had greeted the suggestion.

"Do you know what would happen?" He had spoken to you with the utmost politeness, and very likely it you think you had impressed him. But afterwards he would "make me pay—for a day, or a week, or a month. Till his revenge was satisfied. And he would put an end to our friendship!"

"He couldn't!" Jean had interrupted impulsively. "Couldn't he? You don't know Adrian. . . . And I can't afford to lose you, Jean. You're one of my few comforts in life. Promise me!"—she caught Jean's hands in hers and held them tightly—"promise me that you will do nothing—that you won't try to interfere? I can generally manage him—more or less. And when I can't, why, I have to put up with the consequences of my own bad management!"—with a smile that was more sad than tears.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michells

TIME'S MEASUREMENT

Why should we measure time in days, weeks, years?

The heart of man has never reckoned so;

But by his moods of merriment or tears

He marks the season's flow.

He lives, sometimes, a year which in its flight

Seems passing swiftly as a sunlit day,

So brimmed is every hour with delight,

So tranquil, yet so gay.

I will not let the dial of a clock

Make faulty count of moments long or brief,

Nor shall the calendar's vain efforts

A season's joy or grief.

No scientist man's secret thoughts can chart,

Nor portion hope and dread in equal blocks;

And who forecasts the springtime of the heart?

The spirit's elixir?

Colorado contains 43 mountain peaks which are more than 14,000 feet above sea level.

Middlesex, England, will ban the operation of radio loud-speakers or phonographs in stores.

Scientists Are Puzzled

Hindu Swallows Every Kind Of Poison Without Ill-Effect

"I am completely mystified," declared a famous scientist, after witnessing a remarkable demonstration of poison swallowing by a Madras, Swami, carried out lately at Calcutta University under strict scientific supervision. The man drank every available known kind of deadly poison, showing a preference for cyanide of potassium, varied with broken glass and nails, without ill-effect. The poison was retained in the stomach, and the man was afterwards X-rayed and the position of the articles located. The performance was regarded as a definite challenge to modern science.

Working Every Day Now.

I had to stop working every day. I was terribly bothered with weak back and rheumatism in my shoulders," writes Albert Berger, Wingham, Ont. "It got so bad when I was in the city that I was unable to get out of bed. I was in bed for two weeks in bed, when a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I gave the pills a fair trial, and they relieved me right away. My back is good and strong now, and I am working every day. I have never been bothered with rheumatism since. ## "PAINS ALL OVER ME"

Rheumatism Again!

And once again it was the "little daily dose" of Kruschen that conquered it. In fact, it made this sufferer "feel ever so well."

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts because of having pains in the back, head and joints," pains all over me. I felt tired going to bed, tired getting up. I was in a very bad way. I can't thank you enough for Kruschen Salts.—G. O.

Britain Still Leads

Greatest Importing and Exporting Nation On the Face Of The Earth

Britain is still the leading nation of the world, declared Dr. J. Wesley Bready, author, economist and lecturer, in an address at Calgary at a joint luncheon of the men's and women's Canadian Clubs.

"Britain is still the greatest importing and exporting nation on the face of the earth. Its merchant ships carry more than those of its two largest competitive nations together, the United States and Germany, and Britain still remains the centre of world finance, despite present conditions," he said.

Rumors of talk of a decaying Britain were only rumors and talk, said Dr. Bready. "The wish is father to the thought," he continued.

He feared that another war would come close to "signing the death warrant of white civilization."

Anti-Tuberculosis Vaccine

New Discovery Establishes Complete Immunity For Disease, Is Reported

Henri Spahlinger, director of the Institute Bacterio-Therapique at Geneva and noted authority on tuberculosis, has published a formula for anti-tuberculosis vaccine, which, he claimed would establish complete immunity to the disease in human beings and animals.

Spahlinger's announcement came at the conclusion of years of intensive research during which he used up his entire personal fortune of £100,000. He was able to continue his work only through the financial aid of the Aga Khan, the Duke of Westminster and others who appreciated the importance of the problem he sought to solve.

COMFORT FOR COLICKY BABIES

... THROUGH CASTORIA'S GENTLE REGULATION

The best way to prevent colic, doctors say, is to avoid gas in stomach and bowels by keeping the entire intestinal tract open, free from waste. But remember this: a tiny baby's tender little organs cannot stand harsh treatment. They must be gently urged. This is just the time Castoria can help most. Castoria, you know, is made especially for babies and children. It is a pure vegetable preparation, perfectly harmless. It contains no harmful narcotics. For years it has helped mothers through trying times with colicky babies and infants suffering with digestive upsets, colds and fever. Keep genuine Castoria on hand, with the name.

SUN LIFE CO. ANNUAL REPORT

Insurance In Force Exceeds Three Billions

(Special to the Enterprise.)
MONTREAL, Feb. 9.—A gain of over thirty-six million dollars in assets; twenty-six million dollars paid or allotted during 1931 in dividends to policyholders; a substantial increase; over ninety-three millions in total payments to policyholders and beneficiaries; an increase of twelve millions over 1930; nearly five hundred and twenty-eight millions of new business; assurances in force passing the three billion dollar mark; these are a few of the high spots of the Sun Life report for the past year, presented at the sixty-first annual meeting of the Sun Life of Canada, the Dominion's largest insurance company, held at the head office here today.

The financial statement, which reveals strength and progress, puts an end to rumors circulated from time to time in 1931 that the Sun Life was liquidating United States securities. ### BIG INTEREST IN CIVIC ELECTIONS

Elections to fill vacancies on the Blaimore Town Council and Blaimore Board of School Trustees took place on Monday, an unusual amount of interest being manifested. While quite a number failed to make use of the franchise to vote, yet it is estimated that fully 85 to 90 per cent of the qualified voters turned out to make choice of their candidates.

Six candidates presented themselves for council, namely: W. A. Beebe, agent; John Danco, miner; William Lloyd Evans, merchant; Marshall Hamilton, fire boss; Evan Morgan, miner, and Romano Peressini, miner; the two latter and the first named running for re-election. For school board, the following candidates appealed to the electors for support: Samuel George Binnan, barrister; Emile Blas, miner; Joseph Krkosky, junior, miner; Robert Oakes, fire boss; William Peters, miner, and Robert William Harold Pinkney, merchant (the latter for re-election).

The contest throughout was keen and no surprise was expressed at the result, as follows:

For school: Bannan 330, Blas 227, Krkosky 252, Oakes 339, Peters 243, Pinkney 370. Bannan, Oakes and Pinkney elected.

For council: Beebe 119, Danco 197, Evans 205, Hamilton 134, Morgan 263, Peressini 246. Morgan, Peressini and Evans elected.

Morgan headed the poll on the town ballot, Pinkney for the school. Sixteen ballots were declared spoiled for the town, seven for the school.

We hasten to welcome Messrs. Bannan, Oakes and Pinkney to the school board. Messrs. Bannan and Oakes are new members, but have had considerable experience, while Mr. Pinkney has served the district well as board member for several years past.

The personnel of the 1932 school board will be: S. G. Bannan, J. Angus McDonald, C. J. Tompkins, R. W. H. Pinkney and Robert Oakes.

We also welcome back to the role of councillors Messrs. Evan Morgan and Romano Peressini, who for some years have served the town efficiently and well, the former for a time filling the capacity of deputy mayor, and both as chairmen of the finance committee; and W. L. Evans in the new role.

The personnel of the 1932 town council will be: Mayor James H. Farmer, Councillors: R. Funagalli, W. McVey, Evan Morgan, W. L. Evans, R. Peressini and W. Oakes.

Reorganization of the council will take place at a meeting to be held on Monday night next, and of the school board at a meeting to be held shortly.
